APPLAUDED

When He Sprained His Ankle.

Audience Thought His Fall Was Part of the Show.

Mr. H. S. Godfrey, the black-face comedian, who is on at Lakeside park this week, met with a very painful accident Monday night, which may result in his having to give up his "Lazy Coon Dance" for some time. While doing his dance he slipped upon some sand and fell, spraining his ankle, and breaking several cords.

Dr. J. V. Cleaver was called to dress the sprain and said that Godfrey would have to give up dancing for a while, but that he could go on and give the other part of his performance. When he fell the audience applauded, thinking the fall was done intentionally, but when he went from the stage, he could not return to finish his dance.
